

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

September 23, 2009

League moves to new B'way office

Denham Wolf Real Estate Services Inc. just brokered a three-year, 3,275 s/f lease at 594 Broadway for the administrative offices of The Architectural League, the nonprofit cultural organization that works to advance the art of architecture.

Founded in 1881, The Architectural League presents the work and ideas of the world's most influential architects and designers through lectures, exhibitions, publications and digital media to local, national and international audiences.

Paul Wolf of Denham Wolf Real Estate Services Inc. represented the tenant in the transaction while Brian Steinwurtzel and Donna Vogel of Newmark Knight Frank represented the landlord.

Although details of the lease were undisclosed, the asking price was $39 per square foot.