

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

August 13, 2009

WHO'S NEWS

ination was applied to her position as construction project manager for the nation's largest privately-owned national and international food chain, Villa Enterprises Inc., where she managed multiple simultaneous national build-outs.

Previously, she was a senior project manager at Marbrose Realty Inc., where she provided management and oversight of 36 commercial and mixed-use properties.

Prior to that, she was a property manager at Fletcher Bright Realty Inc. where she managed over 90,000 s/f of commercial property and was responsible for 14 large-scale retail centers.

Hudson Land Company, LLC is pleased to announce that Christopher M. Ifill has joined the company as vice president of sales.

Mr. Ifill will oversee and manage sales operations at Hudson Land Company, which specializes in providing highly focused title insurance services in complex multi site closings, shopping malls, mergers, commercial title insurance and 1031 exchanges for both buyers and sellers.

In his new position, Mr. Ifill will facilitate commercial title insurance for owners and lenders from origination through closings. Prior to joining Hudson Land Company, Mr. Ifill served as assistant vice president of sales for a premier title company, Commonwealth Land Title Insurance Co./Land America, where he began his career maintaining title recordings and interpreting surveys, and was later promoted to an executive in sales of title policies.

Mr. Ifill is an active member of The Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce, Green Pearl, Upworld, The Westchester Networking Business and former member of AREW and the Bronx Board of Realtors.

Denham Wolf Real Estate Services Inc. is pleased to announce that senior project managers Richard Peterson, Sarah Eisinger and Leroy Li have achieved LEED Professional Accreditation.

• With over 20 years of experience in design, construction and project management, Richard Peterson joined Denham Wolf in 2004. Previously, Peterson was a senior project manager at Tishman Construction managing all architectural trades on the Whitehall Ferry Terminal project and a $170-million reconstruction of Manhattan's Staten Island ferry terminal.

While at the New York City Economic Development Corporation, he was responsible for the City Hall restoration and improvements at the Brooklyn Army Terminal.

• Sarah Eisinger joined Denham Wolf in 2005 with a decade of grantmaking, organizational development and management consulting experience in non-profit and public sectors. Previously, she was an associate with the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, working on international sustainable development efforts.

• Also a member of the Denham Wolf team since 2005, Leroy Li has a background in design and construction ranging from educational facilities and housing renovations to large-scale planning and feasibility studies.

Prior to Denham Wolf, he served as a design project engineer for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers for the Jefferson Hall library project and U.S. Military Academy Preparatory School relocation project.

LIDARC announced that it has appointed Dan Lunde executive vice President of business development and sales. Located in Westbury, N.Y. at 1025 Old Country Rd (OCR), the 220,000 s/f building has almost sold out all available rack space in the first section of the data center and has begun pre-leasing and building out the next section.

A 14-year veteran of the telecommunications industry, Lunde has held key positions in Sprint's Global Markets Group and MCI/WorldCom (currently Verizon Business). In his new role at LIDARC Lunde will oversee the development and innovation of the building's data center services, carrier services and fiber room. Lunde is also responsible for building strategic alliances and developing the company's sales channels.

RFR Holding LLC has announced that Mark Weiss, a senior real estate finance executive with more than 20 years of experience, has joined the company as head of capital investments.

In this position, Mr. Weiss will oversee the firm's capital markets operation on a global basis. His work will include the underwriting of both performing and non-performing debt on either securitized, balance sheet or mezzanine basis. Mr. Weiss will additionally have responsibility for equity-based acquisitions, management, sourcing of capital and management of RFR's banking relationships. Mr. Weiss joins RFR from the J E Robert Company where he was a managing director as well as president of JER Real Estate Investors Trust (ERIT), a specialty finance firm that focused on investments in commercial real estate finance structured products including commercial mortgage backed securities, mezzanine loans, B-Note mortgage loans, net leased real estate and preferred equity.

Mr. Weiss previously spent seventeen years at Goldman Sachs having served as a managing director in both the fixed income and investment banking divisions.

Mr. Weiss spent his last eight years at Goldman Sachs in the commercial finance space including co-heading the firm's CMBS and balance sheet lender practice. And he commenced his career in the 1980s with executive positions at both Chemical Bank and Citibank.
