SUITE 1803 | 55 BETHUNE STREET

Signage is subject to review and approval by Westbeth and NYC Landmarks Preservation Commission.

Suite 1803 is a ground floor commercial space with 3,948 RSF adjacent to Bethune Street.

This rare offering of ground floor space in the heart of the West Village will give you a chance to be part of this legacy. Located on the north side of the historically landmarked campus, the space provides clear access to the interior courtyard with its floor-to-ceiling windows and gorgeous barrel-vaulted ceilings. Sharing the outdoor space with an evolving ground-floor mixed-use campus consisting of a theater space, previous sculpture studio, the existing Westbeth Artists Gallery, and education spaces, the offering provides unique access to a variety of demographics and users.

Currently configured as a daycare facility. Landlord will consider a broad range of uses.

SUITE 100 | 55 BETHUNE ST

Signage is subject to review and approval by Westbeth and NYC Landmarks Preservation Commission.

Suite 100 is a raw, double-height, lower level space with ~6,796 RSF, access and frontage on the ground floor.

The unit boasts 20-foot ceiling with a large main space with four smaller 'vaults' with direct access from the inner courtyard and secondary access via the 55 Bethune lobby. The high ceilings and open space make for a variety of uses, including creative programs. Within walking distance of the Whitney Museum and West Village's fine dining, the space would provide an excellent primary or satellite use for any established or up-and-coming creative group.

THE WESTBETH LEGACY

Since 1970, Westbeth Center for the Arts (“Westbeth”) has provided affordable space to a range of artists, cultural organizations, and commercial tenants in accordance with Westbeth’s mission. The 650,000 SF complex of 10 connected buildings is in Manhattan’s West Village, one of the most desirable neighborhoods in the city both residential and commercial uses.

Situated amongst the tree-lined, cobblestoned street of this high income and walkable neighborhood, the Westbeth campus is home to a vibrant community of artists spanning multiple generations. Created to provide affordable housing for artists and their families, Westbeth has long provided opportunities for creative expression and cultural engagement. As a tenant here you will become submerged within a place of inspiration and artistic vision and enjoy easy access to the longstanding community. A short walk away from the heart of the West Village and the Meatpacking District, the campus provides tenants with unparalleled access to the city’s highest end boutique district.

Campus Highlights

- Walkability to Transit, Parks, and Commercial Hubs, Cultural attractions like Pier 51, Little Island, Whitney Museum, The West Village’s Wine and Food Hub
- High Average Household Income
- Unique Creative Community
- Existing On Site Community Gallery
- Individually Landmarked Campus of Historic Significance
- Charming Details Such As Gorgeous Barrel-Vaulted Ceilings
- Floor-to-Ceiling Windows Facing Interior Courtyard
